Announcements

Welcome to all as we gather in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to worship the living and true God!

- Our precentor this week is Hannah Goerner, and the presiding elder is Peter Robson – next week's precentor will be Jake Goerner, and the presiding elder will be Greg Moberg. We will continue to provide the Zoom link each week for those unable to worship in-person.
- There won't be Evening Fellowship tonight.
- There won't be Midweek Bible Study this Wednesday.
- RP Global Missions Prayer Request – Please pray for our mission in Central Asia. Pray for God to bless contacts that have been made and open opportunities for more. Praise God for a granted visa extension after months of prayer! Pray for continued progress in the language and for guidance to more language helpers and friends. Ask God for more laborers to join us for long-term work among this unreached people group.

What We Believe

- We believe in the authority of the inerrant, infallible Word of God.
- We believe in the Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- We believe in Christ alone as our Savior, acknowledging our total inability to save ourselves.
- We believe in Christ's sacrificial death, His bodily resurrection, our union with Him, His mediation between God and man in the heavenly places, and His return to judge the living and the dead.
- We strive to advance Christ's kingdom on earth so that the whole world will acknowledge Him as covenant Lord in every area of life.
- We believe only God may bind the conscience concerning His worship. Therefore, we sing only the Psalms as clearly authorized in Scripture in our formal worship.
- We adhere to our denomination standards found in "The Constitution of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America" (Our Constitution is available to any who are interested in our denominational distinctives).

Participating in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Cherishing this sacrament and believing that it is for professing Christians as taught in 1 Corinthians 11, the Reformed Presbyterian Church believes it is the responsibility of the ordained church elders [the Session in Presbyterian church government] to oversee the observance of the sacrament.

To oversee the observance of the sacrament, the elders provide opportunity for those wishing to commune with us to speak of their faith to the Session (board of elders). If you are visiting our church for the first time, are a member in good standing in a true branch of Christ's visible church, and can answer the 4 questions below with a good conscience, you are welcome to commune with us without first meeting with the Session. If you expect to be attending here again and are a member of a congregation that is not part of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA), we ask that you arrange to meet with the Session soon so we can better know you, hear your profession of faith, and answer any questions you may have about our church. If you are a member of a RPCNA congregation, you do not need to meet with the Session.

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule for faith and life?
2. Do you believe in the only living and true God – Father, Son, & Holy Spirit?
3. Have you repented of your sin, confessed Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord, and are you dedicated to His service? Are you living your life as a Christian, savoring His forgiveness, and endeavoring to turn away from sin?
4. Have you been baptized, are a member in good standing (or active in a church with no membership roll), and involved in the life and ministry of your church?

If you are not sure of your relationship to Jesus Christ, we ask you to let the elements pass by you, and we invite you to speak with one of our elders to hear the good news of the gospel.
